

Life Threatening Conditions

On Lake Michigan Through Early Tuesday

Event Summary

3 to 6 Foot Waves and Gusty Winds
Through Early Tuesday Morning

Dangerous Currents – Especially Near Piers
Through Early Tuesday morning

All Beaches and Piers Impacted From Holland State Park to Manistee

Posted: August 25, 2013 – 10am EDT

Life Threatening Conditions On Lake Michigan Through Early Tuesday

Days Like Today Typically Result in Multiple Water Rescues and Some Drownings

Event Summary	 Winds and Waves Will Be Unusually Strong for Mid-Summer Dangerous Currents Are Expected – Especially Near Piers Strong Currents Along the Shore Will Move from South to North
Hazardous Conditions	 Begin: This morning Peak: Today 3pm until 10pm End: Tuesday around 6 am
Threat Area	 All beaches and piers from Holland State Park to Manistee Greatest Risk for Dangerous Currents: South Side of Piers

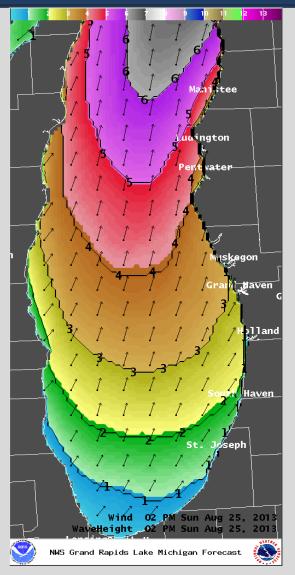

Life Threatening Conditions

Wave Heights
3 to 6 Feet

Winds

From the South 15 to 25 mph

High Impact Beaches Include

- * Pere Marquette Park in Muskegon...
- * Grand Haven State Park
 Both of which are located on the south side of south piers (structural currents).

For Additional Information

Click the Links Below

Beach Hazard Briefing Slides

www.weather.gov/grr/webinars

Recreational Beach Forecast

www.crh.noaa.gov/grr/marine/surf

Lake Michigan Wave Forecast Model

www.glerl.noaa.gov/res/glcfs

Lakeshore and Buoy Observations

www.ndbc.noaa.gov/maps

Beach Observations

http://go.usa.gov/jKMw

NOAA National Weather Service - Grand Rapids, Michigan

National Weather Service Grand Rapids

@NWSGrandRapids

www.weather.gov/grandrapids

Email: w-grr.webmaster@noaa.gov

Phone: 616-949-0643

